FED NEWS BULLETIN

November 2014

- November's "Take 10" Project (Growing a Healthy You) focusses on Men's Health (Movember) and Remembrance. Many "Take 10" suggestions are included as well as great craft and a recipe from FWIC President, Marie Kenny.
- FWIC meets this Oct 24-26 at the International Peace Garden in Manitoba. Please communicate with your executive officer if you have any input or inquires.
- 2015 Triennial Convention registration package is now up on both FWIC and NB WI websites and available for download. Please support WI by promoting the convention in New Brunswick and encouraging members and branches to have an interest.
- Reminder: The Tweedsmuir competitions submissions are due to the FWIC office by March 1st. Provinces are to set their own deadlines and submissions process.
- The FWIC Executive officers nominations forms for 2015-2018 will be sent to the provincial offices in Dec 2014.
- Willie the Worm FWIC fundraiser is hoping to be rejuvenated. There is an announcement regarding a Willie the Worm WI Craft contest in the FALL/WINTER FED NEWS mailed out next week. We are hoping it creates some fun and funds for FWIC.

The NEWLY revised FWIC website will be up and ready by December 2014 (www.fwic.ca). There are daily FWIC updates on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and there is a FWIC blog with recipes and stories at <http://fwicanada.wordpress.com/>
